SUCCESS INDICATORS:Graduation Data for All Programs:

Quantic School of Business and Technology admits new classes of students to each degree program at regular intervals throughout the year, with nine classes of students per program enrolled in 2023. Programs are designed for working professionals, with enough flexibility to accommodate the obligations of daily life. In the event that a student is unable to dedicate the proper amount of time to a program, the student may defer to a future cohort. Deferrals may be done up to two times before the student must re-apply to a new program. For the purpose of graduation data, students are allowed to defer and continue study up to three years after the start of their initial enrollment in a program. Consistent with these standards, the following tables present the enrollment and graduation data by year of enrollment for each of Quantic School of Business and Technology and Valar Institute's degree programs with reportable data.

¹ Number of students available for graduation is defined as all students enrolled in the given calendar year minus those that have already graduated, failed, or otherwise dropped out. It includes deferred students that are expected to graduate within the three-year window of completion.

² Owing to the three-year window for graduation from the start date of a program, final graduation rates for 2021-2023 are not yet available. Graduation rate projections are calculated as the number of graduated students divided by the number of enrolled students (students available for graduation are included in the numerator for best-case projection): MBA: 2021: 82-86%; 2022: 71-85%; EMBA: 2021: 82-87%; 2022: 72-87%; EMBA-SL: 2022: 69-89%; MBA-LM: 2022: 52-87%

Student Satisfaction Survey

Quantic School of Business and Technology uses several surveys to measure student satisfaction during and after the program. In addition, Quantic School of Business and Technology asks the following three-question, true-false survey to all students after the end of the program term:

1. Did you achieve, or will you have achieved upon completing your studies, the goals you had when you started this course or program?
2. Would you recommend these studies to a friend?
3. All things considered, were you satisfied with your studies with us?

Notes: Answers are summarized below for Exit Survey responses collected in 2023, sent to all students whose term was concluded at that time.
